

October 2009

INTERESTED IN GRADUATE OR PROFESSIONAL SCHOOL? Fall Career Services Events for YOU!

Applying to Graduate School, Part 2

Wednesday, October 14, 7-8:30pm, Dowling 745

Hear tips for writing a Statement of Purpose.

The 3 Law School Admissions Deans

Tuesday, October 20, 1-2:30pm, Dowling 745

Join deans from the U. of Chicago, Michigan, and UPenn for a realistic look at how applications are reviewed. Debate the merits of actual law school applications.

Medical Day on the Hill

Tuesday, October 20, 6-8pm, Alumnae Lounge

Networking, panel discussions, and a keynote presentation about medical school and career paths in health professions. RSVP online.

MBA Admissions Panel

Monday, October 26, 6-7:30pm, Dowling 745

Admissions counselors from MBA schools discuss the application process, including where and when to apply. Hear tips and advice on applying from Harvard Business School, Boston College Carroll School of Management, Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth and Brandeis International Business School.

CAREER CONFERENCES FOR WOMEN

Women for Hire New York Career Expo

Wednesday, November 4, 10am-2pm

Sheraton New York Hotel & Towers

Talk with employers and fellow job seekers, receive a resume critique, and attend free seminars. RSVP online at http://www.womenforhire.com/career\_expos/fall\_2009/new\_york

Harvard Undergraduate Women in Business Intercollegiate Business Convention

Saturday, Nov. 7, 8am-7pm, Westin Copley Place, Boston

Hear inspirational speakers, participate in breakout sessions, and attend an exclusive career fair and networking reception.

Space is limited. For more details and to register, visit <http://www.huwib.org/ibc/index.html>.

New York Women in Communications

2009 Student Communications Career Conference

Saturday, November 7, 9am-5pm, Grand Hyatt New York

Meet and network with professionals in the communications industry, representing career fields such as broadcast journalism, digital media, PR, advertising, and more. For details, visit <http://www.nywici.org/students/career-conference>.

SCHOLARSHIP / FELLOWSHIP SITE OF THE MONTH

Career Services Fellowships & Service Link

<http://careers.tufts.edu/students/fellowships/>

UPCOMING DEADLINES

20th Annual Diversity Recruitment Program

Harvard Graduate School of Education

Monday, November 9, HGSE, 13 Appian Way, Cambridge

This program is a day-long, on-campus event to learn about HGSE programs, connect with members of the community, and discover more about academic and student life at HGSE.

RSVP by Thursday, November 5, 2009, 5pm at <http://isites.harvard.edu/drp>.

J.P. Morgan's Winning Women Leadership Event

Friday, November 13, NYC J.P. Morgan headquarters

Open to women in their sophomore or junior year

Transportation paid for by J.P. Morgan

The Winning Women Leadership Events give you the chance to hear from women who have developed impressive careers at J.P. Morgan. Take part in skill-building sessions, mock interviews and job shadows. Many past Winning Women participants have become interns at J.P. Morgan and are now successful full-time Analysts.

Apply by Friday, October 23, 2009

For more details on how to apply, please visit:

<http://jpmorgan.com/winningwomen>.

NEW TO CAREER SERVICES?

Try our drop-in hour from 12-1pm on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays in the Dowling Resource Library, adjacent to Career Services in 740 Dowling. Talk to a career advisor to learn more about our resources or ask a question. No appointment needed.

JOB SEARCH SITE OF THE MONTH

StudentJobs.gov – Federal Employment Opportunities

<http://www.studentjobs.gov/>

MARK YOUR CALENDAR!

Check the Career Services Google Calendar for application deadlines, upcoming programs, and employer & graduate school information sessions. <http://careers.tufts.edu/calendar/>